STAT

Dear Sir:

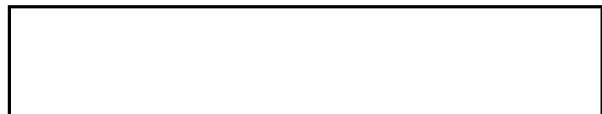

This is in reply to your letter of November 20, 1959 addressed to the Honorable Allen W. Dulles.

The business of this Agency is the coordination of the intelligence activities of the several Government departments and agencies in the interest of national security. (National Security Act of 1947, 50 USC 401.) This means the United States Government. I regret, therefore, that we are not in a position to give moral or legal advice as to the propriety of attempting to sell your personal correspondence to any foreign government.

I am sure you are aware that this Agency cannot intervene in your case for your letter does not ask us to do so.

Dear Sir:

STAT

I respectfully ask that you advise me if it would be proper for me to sell for publication --to the Soviet Government-- my personal file concerning Case No. [redacted] with the Bureau of Employees' Compensation, U. S. Department of Labor, regarding that bureau's procedure in administration of the Federal Employees' Compensation Act which provides for equitable treatment to all injured government workers.

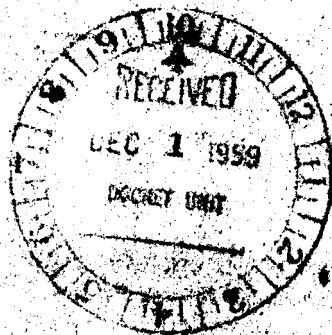

The Secretary of Labor has recently ruled that all phases of this particular case have been dealt with in a fair and reasonable manner and does not constitute any abuse under the law by or on the part of the Bureau.

The Department of Justice has advised me several times that they "... are not empowered to give legal advice or opinions to any person except the President of the United States and the heads of departments."

Your reply regarding this matter will be appreciated.

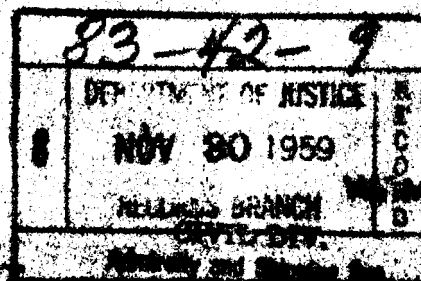

Respectfully yours,
